Web tool to report police excesses

TNN | Dec 11, 2015, 09:58 AM IST

Jalandhar: Khalra Mission Organization (KMO), Punjab Human Rights Organisation (PHRO) and Ensaaf launched a new web-based human rights tool on Thursday to help empower victims of police abuse to report their experiences to mark the International Human Rights Day.

These outfits have set up a web portal ReportPunjabPolice.Org for people to share their grievances. "This web-based form is based on the United Nations reporting standards. Victims will have the option to submit their reports to the UN as well through this tool," said Ensaaf co-director Jaskaran Kaur.

"The data collected through ReportPunjabPolice.org about abuses perpetrated by security forces in Punjab will put a spotlight on the officials and institutions that violate human rights," she said. The web tool provides online report forms in English, as well as, in Punjabi where in a person can fill in all the details like name of victim, officials and place. Ensaaf noted that since mid-October 2015, reports of police abuse in Punjab had escalated, including accounts of torture, illegal detention and killing of two persons in police firing at Behbal Kalan.
